Workshop Housekeeping...

- Please enter questions into the chat and they will be answered during a Q&A session at the end of the workshop.

- You can also email questions following this presentation to saracco@rowan.edu or brush@rowan.edu.

- The recording and slides will be posted online after the presentation on Rowan Digital Works at https://libguides.rowan.edu/libraryworkshops.

- For assistance in the future with ORCID please email librarysupport@rowan.edu

Part 1: Why ORCiD?

ORCiD = Open Researcher and Contributor Identifier
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=a1Rijk_TMHA
What is ORCID?

• A non-profit organization and international open research effort

• Provides researchers with a 16 digit, persistent, unique identifier for name disambiguation

• A public webpage that connects scholarly work to a person

• A set of software tools for connecting researchers to their affiliations and activities
What are the benefits of ORCID to researchers?

a. ORCID is now required by many funders and publishers.
b. ORCID is one of the few researcher record systems that can easily import your existing publications, grants, and patents from various data sources.
c. ORCID can populate other profiles you may have with your publication data such as PURE and NIH Biosketches.
d. ORCID is a non-profit Open system that you can use throughout your career and even outside of Rowan University.
e. Researchers in the Arts and non-STEM fields can highlight their scholarly works even if they are not found in traditional databases.

Biography
I seek to answer fundamental questions about the interactions between human-induced global change and energy and materials transformations at the sediment-water interface. The chemical, physical, and biological processes hosted in aquatic soils and sediments are central to the global elemental cycles that make our planet habitable. I use a combination of extremely high-resolution chemical sensors, stable isotope- and radionuclide-based biogeochemical process rate measurements, flux measurements, diagenetic modeling, and long-term, in situ environmental monitoring in my research.

Part 2: How do I create an ORCiD and associate it with Rowan University?

ORCiD = Open Researcher and Contributor IDentity
Rowan University has joined ORCID.org!

• Now that Rowan is an ORCID member, Rowan has a website where you can register your affiliation with Rowan and either link your Rowan NetID to your existing ORCiD, or create an ORCiD.

• You should do this (rather than going directly to the orcid.org site) so that your affiliation shows up as verified by Rowan University on your new ORCID record.

• It also means you can use Rowan credentials to login to your ORCiD, instead of having to create another password.
What is the first step to get an ORCiD?

Register or Connect your ORCID ID through Rowan's ORCID website: https://orcid.rowan.edu/

Go to the site and then select the button labeled “Register or Connect your ORCID profile.”
If you have ever created an ORCID account before, ORCID may suggest it when you register your account with Rowan.

If this is the case, you sign into that old account and then associate it with Rowan University.
Do I need to do anything else?

Be sure to authorize access to Rowan University.
This authorization will allow you to import information to your ORCID record, such as your position, automatically.

Select the “Authorize Access” button.
What if I don’t already have an ORCiD?

If you don’t have an ORCID, do not click Register now, instead, select Access through your Institution and you will be redirected to rowan.orcid.org to create one. You can add an additional personal email as well after registering, if desired.
Connect your ORCiD to Rowan University

Be sure to click the Rowan University icon or enter Rowan into the “enter your organization’s name” box to create your account using your Rowan NetID.
After agreeing to setup your ORCID, check your Rowan email inbox for a message asking you to confirm your account.

Subject: [EXTERNAL] [ORCID] Welcome to ORCID - verify your email address

Thank you for creating your ORCID identifier. Please verify your email address to complete your registration and gain access to manually edit your record: click the following link and sign into your ORCID record. If you can't click the link, copy and paste it into your browser's address bar.

[Verify your email address]

Your 16-digit ORCID identifier is 0009-0006-0874-9309, and your full ORCID ID and the link to your public record is https://orcid.org/0009-0006-0874-9309

Next steps:

1. Add more information to your ORCID Record

   Access your ORCID record at https://orcid.org/my-orcid and add more information to your record. If you haven't already done so, we strongly recommend that you add more than one email address to your account, since our system checks names and email addresses to prevent the creation of duplicate records.

   Funders, publishers, universities, and others use the information contained in your ORCID record to help reduce the record-keeping they ask from you. Increase the information you can share by adding other names you are known by, professional information such as your affiliation, biography, and keywords, funding you have received, and works you have created or contributed to your record.

   See our tips for six things to do now that you have an ORCID ID. For tips on adding information to your ORCID record see: https://support.orcid.org/hr/articles/360006806804

2. Use your ORCID ID when publishing, applying for grants, and more

   Many systems ask for your ORCID ID in order to create a link between you and your research outputs and affiliations. Using your ORCID ID, and granting organizations permission to update your record whenever they request this will help you get credit for your work and reduce time spent on future record-keeping.

Update your ORCID Profile

What is ORCID?

Your ORCID ID is https://orcid.org/0000-0002-0084-2879.

Click the button below to update your Rowan affiliations on your ORCID profile with the most recent information in Banner.

Update ORCID Profile
You have an ORCiD, now what? ...

- Add it to your grant applications.
- Add it to your affiliation information when submitting manuscripts to journals.
- Add it to your email signature.
- Add it to other research profiles such as Scopus ID, ResearcherID, or your SciENcv.
- Add it to your CV and/or tenure applications.

Adding your ORCID to other researcher profiles generates increased promotion and access to your scholarly activity.
Part 3: Populating your ORCiD with your publications

How to add content to your ORCID record

Publications

ORCID connects to several external databases to ease the importing of your previous works to your ORCID record:
How to add one work at a time manually

Publications

Additionally, you can manually add publications by using:
- An article DOI
- A Pubmed ID
- A Bibtext files from Endnote/Mendeley/etc.
- Manually input the article metadata yourself.
